AT REST.

Mr. George A. Robertson, Kentucky's First State Librarian, and the Longest Serving Official in the State Government, Died Sunday.

A SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

On Sunday evening about 7 o'clock Mr. George Alexander Robertson died at his home in Bellepoint. He had been confined to the house for more than a month, and his friends were hopeful that despite his great age he would still be able to resist the encroachment of disease, and again appear among them, but a late attack of pneumonia quickly dispelled that hope.

Mr. Robertson was born December 6, 1807, four miles from Harrodsburg, in the same room in which his uncle, George W. Robertson, Chief Justice of Kentucky, and his aunt, afterwards the wife of Gov. Letcher, were born. His father, James Robertson, moved to Stanford when the subject of this sketch was a child, and there as a boy in his sixth year, having learned to play the drum while the negroes whistled for him, he beat that instrument at the muster station of Lancaster for volunteers in the war of 1812. When twenty years of age Mr. Robertson came to this city and entered the office of his uncle, James Davidson, his mother's brother, who was then State Treasurer. He remained in this office for two years, and afterwards wrote in the Auditor's office and subsequently was clerk of the Land Office. At the session of the Legislature in 1832-'33 the office of State Librarian was created, and he was the first elected to that office, which he held for seventeen years and declined re-election on account of failing health and engaged in merchandising. He was genial, honest and industrious, and his services in the mercantile line were in demand, but after eleven years as clerk in the stores of John L. Moore and Addison Parker, he yielded to requests of his friends, and especially the judges of the Court of Appeals, who were often obliged, even during his retirement from office, to consult him on the books of reference in the Library, to again become a candidate for the office of Librarian. This was in 1862 and he retained the office for six years and was then elected by the judges Sergeant-at-Arms of the Court of Appeals, which he held until his death. During his long service on the Square he became acquainted with more people over the State, particularly the members of the bar, than any other officer in the State government.

He was twice married, the first wife being Miss Louisa McCurdy, daughter of Dr. Allen F. McCurdy, of this city, by whom he had three children, and the second wife, Miss Julia Jameson, of Lancaster, by whom he had two children. None of his children lived to maturity. With his last named wife, who yet survives, he celebrated his golden wedding in the year 1889, at which time, as a remarkable coincidence, two of his intimate friends from early manhood, Judge Lysander Hord and Capt. Harry I. Todd, deceased, of this city, also celebrated the like occurrence in their lives.

Judge Hord, remarking upon the event, said:

"When I came to Frankfort in October, 1835, to study law in the office of Charles S. Morehead and Mason Brown, I was taken by my guardian to the house of Col. Davidson to board. He then owned and occupied the house now belonging to Mrs. Nelson Heffner, on the corner of Broadway and Madison streets. I found George A. Robertson living there, with his uncle, and for more than three years we had the same room and bed. It was while we were living with Col. Davidson that the late Capt. Harry I. Todd in 1839 courted and married Miss Jane Davidson, daughter of the Colonels, and in October of the same year I married my wife, Miss Hannah Ann Price. In the following month "Aleck" Robertson, as we always called him, married his present wife, Capt. Todd died in 1891, Aleck has just passed over and Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Robertson and myself and wife are the survivors of the celebration of that happy golden year."

The deceased was a devout Christian, an upright, kind-hearted gentleman who will be sadly missed by the young and old, to whom his cheering smile was a welcome inspiration. He united with the First Presbyterian Church in this city in 1828 and the following December was elected a deacon, which office he held until 1868 when he was elected a ruling elder.

At the time of his golden wedding referred to the church officers presented him with an elegant gold-headed walking stick, with an appropriate inscription of their esteem. As a mark of respect to his memory, the Court of Appeals adjourned Tuesday and caused suitable resolutions, referring to his long official connection with the court and character of a gentleman and an officer, to be spread upon the records of the court, and the officers of the Presbyterian Church likewise paid him a similar tribute.

The funeral, which took place Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, was largely attended by the State officials, members of the bar and Legislature, and judges of the Court of Appeals and Superior Court. Rev. Dr. Blayney conducted the services, and the remains were attended by the following gentlemen as active pall-bearers, and laid at rest in the cemetery of this city: The ruling elders in the church, comprising Messrs. W. H. Averill, Frank Chinn, R. K. McClure, W. T. Reading, S. C. Bull; also Messrs. J. N. Crutcher and W. L. Pence, of Bellepoint. The honorary pall-bearers were the judges and officers of the Court of Appeals.

Mrs. R. C. Rhos,

Of Milford, Neb., says she suffered greatly from a complication of diseases of female weakness and liver and kidney troubles. Her health was fully restored by using Dr. Hale's Household Remedy, the most pleasant and effective medicine known. 25c and 50c per package at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

COURT OF CLAIMS.

The Tax Levy for the County for 1893 Fixed and Other Important Business Attended To.

The Court of Claims met at the court-house Monday.

The bridge committee for awarding the two bridges at Hardinsville reported the two bridges completed at a cost of $1,311.40 and the clerk was ordered to issue the county warrants for same as follows:

Groton Bridge Co. $961.60

S. M. Tinsley 199.80

L. F. Johnson 150.00

Esquire McDonald and Bohannan and County Attorney Johnson were appointed a committee to confer with a similar committee from the city council in regard to proper action to be taken in the St. Clair street bridge matter.

On motion of Esquire Tinsley, County Attorney Johnson was directed to take the proper steps to list all corporations for 1893 which have as yet failed to list with the assessor.

The following claims were allowed:

P. McDonald, advertising $115.00

R. Rogers & Sons, furniture 47.90

P. McDonald, Com. turnpike 15.00

Same " bridges 10.00

J. D. Moore " 10.00

S. M. Tinsley " 25.00

J. B. Hockensmith, coffins 10.00

J. W. Bohannan, Com. turnpike 10.00

This sum it was estimated, after deducting the cost of the collections, would net the county about $19,600, which would leave about $2,400 over, and above all the present actual and known expenses for the year. It is expected, however, that a larger amount will yet be derived from a number of corporations which have not listed for the present year under the new Revenue Law. Though the tax rate this year, therefore, will be materially reduced—the State being 42 cents, the county 51 cents and poll tax $1.50 as against the levy for 1892—47 cents for the State, 76 cents for the county and two dollars for poll tax—there will be ample revenue derived to meet all the expenses of the county for this year. The court made a partial settlement with ex-Sheriff Noel and passed the remainder of its work to the next meeting on the first Monday in April.

The Fire Department in every city could not do better than to keep a dozen of Salvation Oil at each station. It instantly relieves all burns, scalds and bruises and in a few days makes an effectual cure of the wound. 25 cents.

Why Is It

Reckless boys or men who seem to be tearing planks off the walkway on the St. Clair street bridge and thus endangering the lives of little children cannot be prevented from doing it?

Some enterprising citizens do not take hold of the idea to secure the State House yard now, while the Legislature is here, for the purpose of having free open air concerts by Prof Wolf's excellent band this summer?

The merchants are not pushing the request made sometime ago of President M. H. Smith, of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, for a new depot that would be ornamental as well as sufficiently commodious to meet the requirements of the growing passenger and freight business in this city?

The city council is not taking action in the matter of certain owners of lots on the South Side who have inclosed within their lots a part of the streets of the city, and thereby depriving the public of their full use and enjoyment as well as causing the lines of the streets to appear irregular and unsightly?

The South Side is not entitled to good sidewalks as well as the North Side, and that new sidewalks are not made or the old ones repaired, where needed, especially along the main highways, which in many places now are almost impassable?

The Board of Health are not at work now issuing their orders to have the back premises and streets and alleys thoroughly cleaned before the advent of cholera this season?

Why Is It?

Sergeant-at-Arms and Tipstaff.

The Court of Appeals yesterday filled the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. George A. Robertson. Mr. W. S. B. Hill, who was the Tipstaff, was elected Sergeant-at-Arms, and Mr. J. M. Johnson, of Henderson, a cousin of Mrs. D. M. McHenry, of this city, was elected Tipstaff. The pay of each of these offices is $900 a year. Mr. Johnson was the choice of Judge Bennett, the Chief Justice, whom the court, as a courtesy, has always permitted to fill such vacancies.

It came in a small bottle, and I used it right to-day, and would insist on everyone who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by J. RIVER BUSINESS IMPROVING—Wednesday afternoon there were three boats within view of the St. Clair Street Bridge, the John Barrett, Isere and Falls City. These boats, with the Clarksville and S. R. Vanmeter, which are making regular trips on this river, appear to be doing considerable business.

INSANE—Chris Harrod, of Bald Knob, and Frank Fletcher, colored, of this city, were adjudged insane on Tuesday, and ordered by County Judge Williams to be confined in the asylum at Lexington.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION—Tony Fitzgerald and James McKenzie, who had come into the city Monday morning by the cross tie route over the Louisville & Nashville line, were arrested on suspicion of being guilty of firing a large barn belonging to Mr. Withrow, and which was destroyed Sunday night, this side of Midway.

They were taken to Midway for examination.

SKIPPED—Saturday night John Knode, aged about nineteen years, the night bell boy at the Kenyon Hotel, instead of getting a twenty dollar bill changed, as he was requested to do, made a few purchases with the money and then hired a horse and buggy and skipped out for his home in Lawrenceburg. He was heard of later in Lexington, and the police were notified to arrest and return him to this city.

NOTARY PUBLIC—Mr. Grant L. Roberts on Monday qualified as notary public in the office of County Clerk Smith.

MR. LOUIS D. CRAIG—Monday Mr. Louis D. Craig was selected by the Sinking Fund Commissioners as an assistant to State Inspector Gardner in the work of taking an inventory and making the appraisement of the property in the penitentiary which the State would be obliged to purchase from the Mason & Foard Co. before the accounts could be adjusted.

A NEW STEAMBOAT—The Carrollton Democrat, of last Saturday, says: "Capt. Peter E. Told bought the Ida Smith and will run her from Hickman to Carrollton, making two round trips a week. This adds another boat to the white collarine of the Kentucky river. Capt. Told is developing a business in this river that will be of great value to people who live along the river, to say nothing of the men to whom he has given employment. The Captain virtually established the fact that the Kentucky could be made use of, other than for which it was intended; that is, take coal up if you can't bring it down."

PoISONING A DOG—G. W. Bush, the sewing machine agent, was examined by County Judge Williams Thursday on the charge of poisoning a dog belonging to Mrs. Maddox, of North St. Clair street, and held over in a bond of $50 to answer the charge before the grand jury.

RAN AWAY FROM HOME—Two boys, each about fourteen years, Barkley and James Dennis, who ran away from their home in St. Louis, were arrested and placed in jail Wednesday to await their friends. Day at one time lived here, and is a brother of Charley Day, who represented a Louisville furniture company here a short time ago.

HEAD - SHARP—Monday, at the County Clerk's office, Mr. George W. Head and Miss Permelia Sharp, both of Owen county, were married by Rev. W. G. Neville, of the Southern Presbyterian Church.

BUCKNER-DAVIS—The engagement is announced of Miss Lizzie Davis, formerly of this city, but now of Shelbyville, to Dr. Thomas Buckner, who has recently come to this county from Shelby and entered upon a practice at Woodlake. The marriage it is said will take place about the first week in June at Shelbyville. Miss Davis is a beautiful young lady, daughter of Col. John F. Davis, ex-Commissioner of Agriculture and a sister of Mrs. Grant Green, Jr., of this city. She was very popular during her residence here and is held in equal favor in social circles at Shelbyville. Those who know Dr. Buckner accord him with the highest praise.

GREEN - ALLISON—A marriage license was issued Monday to George W. Green and Mrs. Catherine Allison, of Bald Knob.

GRIFFIN-CRONAN—The Courier-Journal, of Wednesday, says: "The marriage of Charles J. Cronan, the druggist at Thirteenth and Chestnut streets, and Miss Annie Hamel is announced for the near future. At the same time Miss Lizzie Cronan and Mr. John Griffin, of Frankfort, will be married."

HAGER-FELICETTI—Mr. Henry B. Hager and Mrs. Ida Felicetti were married by Rev. George Darsie Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the Christian Church.

WOOLFOLK-SINGLETON—The Courier-Journal, of Thursday, announced the sudden marriage of Miss Virginia Singleton to Mr. Junius A. Woolfolk, now of Chicago, but formerly of Louisville. Miss Singleton, who is a grand-daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Peter, of Louisville, and has often visited this city, where she has many friends, was engaged it was said, to a gentleman in Charlotte, N.C., and the marriage set for April 20th. Mr. Woolfolk was a former student, his removal to Chicago it was supposed had dispelled his fond hope of making the young lady his wife, but his appearance in Louisville Wednesday was sufficient to decide their fate and the marriage was accordingly celebrated at once, at the home of Dr. Peter, and in the presence of only a very few relatives.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 25, 1893.

MR. ED. P. BRYAN.

Railroad Superintendents at St. Louis Elect Him President of Their Association.

Mr. Ed. Bryan, formerly of this city, but now of St. Louis, was again heard from last week, and this time it is his election to the office of President of the Association of Superintendents of the railroads centering at St. Louis, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation, of Mr. J. Q. Van Winkle, who had removed from that city. This is regarded as a very important position by the railroad men, and is an honor attesting the esteem in which Mr. Bryan is held by the superintendents of many of the greatest railroads in the country, especially noteworthy in his case considering the brief period of his residence in St. Louis. Mr. Bryan is rapidly receiving the recognition which his ability and experience entitle him to, and his friends in this city congratulate him on his success, which they predict will not end until he has forged his way to the front as among the first railroad magnates of the country.

HELD TO ANSWER.

Caswell Bennett, jr., for One of His Many Checks Drawn on His Father, Jailed For Forgery.

Caswell Bennett, jr., son of Chief Justice Bennett, was arrested Monday shortly after his return from Crab Orchard, where he has been sojourning for a month, and lodged in jail on a felony warrant sworn out by Messrs. Weitzel & O'Donnell. Sometime last December young Bennett had a check for $25 cashed by Weitzel & O'Donnell which bore the signature of Judge Bennett, but which when presented for payment was denounced as not genuine. An attempt was made by the firm to recover their money from Judge Bennett in order that his son might be spared from prosecution for his crime, but the unhappy father, who has for years borne with the waywardness of his son and realized that a stand had to be taken sooner or later or the wasting of his accumulations would be accomplished within a few years, refused the accommodation and the arrest was accordingly ordered. On Tuesday afternoon the case was called before County Judge Williams, who had issued the warrant, when Messrs. Jas. A. Scott and Hal Corbett appeared for the defendant and waived an examination. Bond was thereupon fixed at $300 for Bennett's appearance at the term of the circuit court the first Monday in April, but as that amount was not forthcoming in pledge the prisoner was remanded to jail.

Street car drivers and others who are constantly exposed to all kinds of weather, and cannot find time to lay by, should ever bear in mind this plain fact that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures coughs and colds. It is unequalled.

RHYME AND REASON.

Col. Thos. B. Ford Pleads For Rehearing of a Case in a Remarkable Petition.

Circuit Clerk Thomas B. Ford, who in the past often invoked the muse with much effect, is caught again flirting with the old girl and winning from her the magic power to even make dry facts of law appear an entertaining poem. He has been for years engaged as an attorney by first one and then another county superintendent to prosecute their claims against the State Superintendent for a sum alleged to be due them for taking the school census in 1884, and for which by the change of the school law that year they maintained was not paid to them by the then Superintendent Pickett. In the first case of Superintendent Harrod, of this county, the Court of Appeals rendered a decision against the State and the second case of Superintendent Adams, of Henry county, the State won. Last week, in the Superior Court, the case of Superintendent Victor F. Bradley, now County Attorney of Scott county, was decided against Mr. Bradley, and Col. Ford, in the inspiration of the justice of his cause, asks the court for a rehearing of the case in a petition in rhyme covering all the main issues relied upon and from which the following excerpts are taken, viz:

Since prose has failed we'll try our hand in verse.
And here our client's cause we will rehearse.
If Bradley did the work and got no pay,
He ought to have it, every one will say.
This is the law as settled by the Court.
In Harrod's case, and Adams' (see Report).
The law is here that can't be moved.
But that Vic Bradley be not paid
is admitted that he did the work,
And never did his honest duty shrink.
Reported 57 public schools.
In '84, according to the rules.
For each one of them he should have three
According to the law which strictly follows.
This is admitted by the Apellant.
He never will deny it for he can't.
In month of June in 1884.
Admits the work was done, just as before.
But pleads a payment, in a wondrous way,
Never known before until this latter day.
The burden being on the grand old state
To pay him, and he has no place to stand.
What is the cause? That is what we are to it month of August, 1884.
I set apart this moner, don't you see?
One half I paid in January next,
The other half in June, or I'm perplexed.
Except twelve dollars, which I owe you yet;
Here it is, Dear Sir, so don't you fret.
It was a present, and I have had
In contemplation, and quite blind.
To set apart in August, Eighty-three.
Funds for a debt, which never yet might be.
It's strange how such a thing could be compacted;
To pay a debt which had not been contracted;
The work was done, is stranger problem sure.
Defendant tried, almost to trip in vain
And when at last he was directly pressed,
His candor and honesty confessed.
That this receipt, which he had tendered here,
Was simply pay for the preceding year.
Just read defendant's cross examination
And you will find sufficient explanation.
The money paid was for the year before,
For 38 schools visited, and no more.
This shows the shortage of these twelve lone solvers.
Which as a natural deduction follows.
There being four more schools in '84,
That cost this amount to make it sure;

The Adams case don't bother us a bit.
For it is not our case, let us fix.
The Court is at opinion only said.
That Adams' claim the previous year was paid.
'Twas based upon that theory alone.
As by opinion clearly there is shown,
Opinion says that Adams could no more
Collect for school year ending '84.
But now as sure as we are all alive,
We sue for school year ending '84.

Mothers' Recommendation.

We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day. From personal experience we say it is a broken heart and colds for our children—Centerville, South Dakota, Citizen. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Much of Nothing.

The Courier-Journal, of Sunday, tells the story of a young lady of this city mistaking the tone of the cornet in a church of that city for the human voice, and that it was only after some difficulty and much embarrassment that her friends who were with her in the church could stop her from accompanying the cornet. The story needs verification, but if it was related mere as a set-off to the appearance of the progressive spirit in the choirs in Louisville, it might be said in defense of those in Frankfort, that the First Presbyterian Church in this city has had a concert accompaniment for a number of years, and for some time past has added to it both the flute and violin.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 25, 1893.

THE CITY COUNCIL

A Quiet and Unimportant Meeting Last Tuesday Night.

All the members or the council were present at the meeting last Tuesday night but the character and volume of the business transacted in open session were not of much public interest.

Rev. E. A. Penick in person made a request that the bishop's residence in this city be exempted from city taxation. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

A petition of S. Meaders for a grocery license was referred to the license committee.

A petition of J. P. Cowmy to build a frame house on Arlington Heights was granted.

The resignation of Mr. H. K. Brown as city assessor was received and accepted.

On motion of Mr. McClure the council proceeded to elect a city assessor to fill the vacancy, and Mr. W. W. Porter was thereupon unanimously chosen for the office.

The bond of Joseph Bailey, city engineer, with Henry Williams as security, and the bond of Wm. Willis, keeper of the work-house, with P. A. and S. Fuhs as securities, were accepted and filed.

Mr. Swigert, by request, presented a resolution to have some one appointed by the mayor to number all houses in the city not now numbered, the expense for which not to exceed 25 cents each house, to be paid by the owner of the property. The resolution was referred to the street committee.

The clerk was directed to notify Messrs. Dryden and Brisban that their bid for the opera house had been accepted.

The council then went into an executive session on the consideration of the street railway ordinance and deferred action on the same until the next meeting.

The State vs. Penitentiary Lessees.

Attorney General Hendrick, as directed by the Sinking Fund Commissioners, on Wednesday filed the big suit of the State against the lessees of the penitentiary. There were five different suits, aggregating without interest, $99,358.95, which the Attorney General said will present every phase of the question possible for the interest of the State, not only including the points claimed by the Governor but also others that will finally and conclusively settle all matters in dispute between the State and the Mason-Foard Co. and C. R. Mason & Co. on all contracts save what remains of the ten year contract at Eddyville.

Illinois. Kentucky.

From Danville, Ill., Mrs. H. J. Nahors writes: "I have been using your remedies for scrofula and am greatly benefited. My back was almost one solid sore. Two boxes of Dr. Hale's Homeopathic Ointment healed it up."

From Olive Hill, Ky., Mrs. M. J. Matney writes, May 13, 1892: "My daughter has been afflicted with erysipelas in her eyes from infancy. She is now past 15 years old and one 2d. box has cured her." It costs no more to get the box. Get a box at F. H. Carpenter's drug store. I

UNPAID BILLS.

Auditor Reports the Frankfort Merchants' Claims for Supplies Furnished Camp Buckner.

As directed by resolution of the House last week, Auditor Norman on Tuesday reported to that body the list of unpaid claims in this city for supplies furnished to Camp Buckner in August, 1891. The matter was referred to the committee on claims, and as the House on Wednesday defeated the resolution for an encampment at Chicago next August, it is believed that it is significant of the members' intention to be just before they are generous and, after a full investigation of the accounts, pay the claimants what may be actually due them. The following is the list reported by the Auditor, viz:

W. T. Gaines & Son, livery . . .	$10 50
Frank Kennedy, ice chest . . .	10 00
W. L. Pence, lumber . . .	671 26
Henry Gobber, nails and buck- ets	18 15
Dehoney & Graham, camp furniture	65 40
Weitzel & O'Donnell, towels, etc	66 40
Frank S. Haff, ice	55 65
Charles Nelson, milk barrel, G. L. Hannen & Co., hard- ware	6 00
N. I. McDaniel, feeding horses	27 00
Wm. Quarles, milk and but- ter	58 90
L. & N. R. R., bridge toll	136 40
Meagher & Marshall, time orders	860 15
Total	$1,991 86

Look at the size of the ordinary bill. Think of all the trouble and expense that would be involved. Wouldn't you welcome something easier to take and easier in its ways if at the same time it did you more good? That is the case with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They're the smallest in size, the mildest in action, and the most thorough in healing in the system. They follow nature's methods, and they give help that lasts. Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick and Bilious Headaches, and all derangement of the liver, stomach and bowels are promptly and permanently cured.

If we can't cure your catarrh, no matter how bad your case or how long standing, we'll pay you $500 in cash." That is what is promised by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Doesn't it prove better than any words could, that this is a remedy that cures catarrh? Costs only 50 cents.

An Appeal.

To the Methodists of the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, and all others interested in the betterment of our mountain people:

DEAR BRETHREN AND SISTERS: You have heard how the good people of the mountains have responded to our proposition to put two thousand dollars into school buildings there, we to raise $5,000 and they to raise $5,000. Their $5,000 is pledged, to be paid May 1, 1893. We have not raised as yet over $2,500 of ours, and must resource ourselves, if we get to work this spring, as we want and expect to do.

We want a subscription from each one who reads this notice or hears it read, or hears of its existence, or knows of the enterprise. Does this not mean that we are poor? Let us inform you that we want a subscription from you, personally. You will give it we feel assured.

This enterprise must not fail. We are too nearsighted with it to consider the possibility of failing, and that is too much dependent upon it to think of failure.

Let us have your note for any sum from one dollar up to one thousand dollars, payable on demand when the five thousand dollars is raised. Your pastor will furnish a note. "What thou dost, do quickly."

CLARA M. POYNTER,
Pres. Parsonage & Home Society,
SHIELSBYVILLE, KY.

Nature's Surest Ally.

If nature did not struggle against disease, even a weakly constitution would indeed be able to withstand any kind of fatal termination. While nature thus strives let us, lest worse fall us, aid her efforts with judicious medical help. Experience must be our guide in battles with disease, and that "lamb to our feet" indicates Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a safe, safe and powerful medicine. If the bowels and stomach are inactive, if the kidneys fail to expel impurities of which they are the natural outlet, a course of the Bitters is the surest reliance of the sufferer, one, moreover, that is sanctioned by professional endorsement and use for foreign remedy has earned greater distinction for a remedy for and preventive of chronic liver complaints, constipation, kidney and rheumatic trouble and debility.

ONE ENJOYS

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities command it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

Why Don't You Stop

These words are very familiar to our readers, as not a day passes without the report of the sudden death of some prominent citizen. The explanation is "Heart Disease." Therefor let me call your attention to the following symptoms: Shortness of Breath, Pain in Side, Smothering Spells, Swollen Ankles, Asthmatic Breathing, Weak and Hungry Spells, Tenderness in Shoulder or Arm, Fluttering of Heart, or Irregular Pulse. The most reliable remedy is Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which has saved thousands of lives. Book of testimonials free at J. W. Gayle's who also sells the New Heart Cure. 1

A Unique Entertainment.

On next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Baptist Church, there will be given one of the most interesting and enter-tainments that has ever visited this country.

A company of orphan boys from Dr. Bernardo's Orphans' Home in London will give musical selections from various of the masters, also many of the popular airs of England, Scotland and Ireland, performing on flute, silver-toned handbells, mandolin, dulcimer, xylophones and bagpipes.

Rev. Mr. Wookey, lecturer and evangelist, will tell the thrilling and startling story of child rescue work from the horrors of London slums and dens, and will illustrate the lecture with stereopticon.

This is not a show in any sense of the word, but is an attempt on the part of Dr. Bernardo to bring more fully to the knowledge of the Christian world the vast opportunities that attend the work of rescuing and training orphans, a work which is only in its infancy.

As this is purely undenominational and for the entertainment and instruction of all, every one is invited to be present.

The traveling expenses of the boys and their lecturer are of course very great and there will be a small admission fee at the door.

Remember that it is on next Wednesday and Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the Baptist Church.

Fail to do Their Duty.

Everybody has at times failed to do their duty towards themselves. Hundreds of lady readers suffer from sick headache, nervousness, sleeplessness and female troubles. Let them follow the example of Mrs. H. Miles' Discovery, of New Haven, Wis., who for five years suffered greatly from nervous prostration and sleeplessness, tried physicians and different medicines without success.

But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine will soon sleep every night and she is feeling like a new person. Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Laramie City, Wyoming, who tried all other remedies, declares that after three week's use of the Nervine for Headache, Nervous Prostration, etc., she was entirely relieved. Sold by J. W. Gayle. Trial bottle free.

Death of Miss Florida Robinson.

The sudden and lamented death of this dear young lady, at her home in Bridgeport Friday night, March 17, calls for more than a mere passing notice. She was a young girlhood, there was hardly a grace or excellency of character which she did not embody in herself. She was the very soul of kindness, goodness, and benevolence. She delighted to do good, and her own pleasure or comfort were always secondary to the happiness of those around her. She was pure as the breath of morning, and her whole being responded to what was pure as the opening buds of the annual springtime. Warm and affectionate in her attachments, she won the hearts of all who knew her. Her cheery greeting was a benediction, and her smile a ray of heavenly sunshine. Through the whole community where she lived she was everybody's friend and everybody's hero. And now that she has been taken, the sorrow is great and universal. The crowded and tearful gathering at her funeral last Sunday afternoon told more strongly than words could do the esteem and affection in which she was held. But if thus beloved by those without what was she not to those within her own little family circle—to the stricken mother, sister and brother? Truly to them was she the very light of life, and words can not picture the desola-tion her going brings. It is like the setting of the sun, with darkness succeeding. But stars of hope have already arisen, which seem as though her own beckoning hand were calling them to the skies. Patience, dear affected ones, a little while and she shall be young again, and will keep with you the time of your home-coming. And then she shall be given back forever. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." I heard a voice from heaven saying, write, blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth; they saith with the Spirit, that through their labor and their works do follow them."

A prompt return of your money, if you get neither benefit nor service, is guaranteed. It's a particular medicine. It's the guaranteed remedy for all Blood, Skin and Disease. It comes in a small bottle, or to scriptural the word Scrofula. It cures, purifies and enriches the blood, and cures Salt-rheum, Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, and many more diseases than you can ever name. It costs you nothing if it doesn't help you. The only question is, whether you want to be helped.

Dr. Miles' Medical Discovery is the cheapest blood-purifier sold, through druggists, because you only pay for the good you get.

The "Discovery" acts equally well all the year round. Made by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, at 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Deaths.

FREEMAN — Mr. John Sidney Freeman, a young unmarried son of Mr. C. T. Freeman, of near Duckett station, and a nephew of Col. Thomas W. Scott, of the same neighborhood; died in Louisville Saturday of cerebro spinal meningitis. The deceased was a cultivated, aspiring young man, whose efforts to win the full measure of success in life gave abundant promise of fulfillment. After securing all the advantages of a liberal education in this State, he obtained employment as a teacher in Texas, where he remained for several years earning high wage. With the money he contrived to save, he came to Louisville and entered upon a course in medicine last September with the intention to pursue the study in other cities until he considered himself thoroughly qualified to practice. His sudden untimely death was a sad blow to his parents, to whom he was a devoted son. The progress of the disease was so rapid that his mother and sister, Miss Mattie, who took the first train on the receipt of the summons, did not have time to reach his bedside before he expired. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, at the Forks of Elkhorn Baptist Church, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery of this city.

MERCHANT — Mr. Lapette F. Merchant, a nephew of Mrs. C. J. Smith, and cousin of Mrs. R. L. Grinstead of Bellipoint, died in Louisville Tuesday and the remains were brought to this city for interment.

MULLIGAN — The friends of Senator James H. Mulligan, of Lexington, were deeply pained to learn of the death on Sunday of his five year old daughter, Henrietta Duke Mulligan, by scarlet fever.

CURTIS — W. R. Curtis, who at one time had charge of the Kentucky River Improvements, died at Savannah, Ga., the first of this week.

O'HARA — The friends in this city of Mrs. O'Hara, wife of Judge James O'Hara, of Covington, will be pained to learn that she died at Hot Springs, Arkansas, on Monday. The deceased is related to the Hardie family, of this city, and has often visited them as well as Mrs. L. C. Norman, whom she last visited a few months ago.

CARTER — Mr. Thos. Carter, who for a time was a clerk in the Insurance Bureau and later for a number of years an insurance agent in this city, died on Monday at the Masonic Home, in Nashville, Tennessee, of paralysis, aged about seventy-five years. The remains arrived here Tuesday morning, were received at the station by a delegation of Hiram Lodge, No. 4, A. Y. M., and deposited in the vault at the cemetery.

ROBINSON — Miss Florida Robinson, a sister of Dr. Owen Robinson, of the county, and niece of Mr. Joseph Robinson, of this city, died at her home near Bridgeport, Friday night of last week, of cerebro spinal meningitis. The deceased was about twenty-four years of age, and for several years taught a school in the county. She possessed those lovable traits of character which won her a large circle of friends both in the county and in this city where she had often visited, and her sudden death was a painful shock to all who knew her. The funeral occurred Sunday at the Bridgeport Church and the remains were buried in the cemetery of this city.

Moore — Mr. Ashbury Moore, formerly of this city, and brother of Mr. W. A. Moore, died at Pleasureville Monday.

PEPPER — Mr. Lapette F. Merchant, a nephew of Mrs. C. J. Smith, and cousin of Mrs. R. L. Grinstead of Bellipoint, died in Louisville Tuesday and the remains were brought to this city for interment.

Pea Ridge.

"We met the enemy," Commodore Perry, 1813.

The nefarious attempt to close our road to Frankfort failed. The case was tried before Judge Williams last Saturday, and the court decided that one man did not have the right to shut up a country road to save putting up a fence or to camp his fellow citizens to travel in an direction that they didn't want to go and swell the receipts of a soulless corporation.

An attack on our liberty is at all times offensive and is still more offensive in this case from the fact that we are always told close we should have to go nearly a mile out of our way and pay tribute to the party closing it. The Scribe congratulates the people on their victory and the court on the wisdom of its decision.

Mr. John Pierce is tearing down his house that he built here last year and is moving it out to the Zook lot, Benson pine.

Mr. Will Pierce has rented the Pence farm and moved there with his family.

Mr. Herndon, of Bridgeport, has bought the Sol Crockett place of Mrs. R. Crockett and is moving in this week.

Mr. Joe Williams has rented the Will Pierce place and moved in.

Mrs. Betsy Ann Moore has rented the Henry Sargent place.

Mr. Will Tracy will raise corn this year on Fleetwood Farm.

Messrs. Jim Tracy and Will Dennis will crop together this year. The many friends of Mr. Bud Crutcher will be sorry to learn that he still remains very low.

All readers of the ROUNDABOUT the last few weeks will remember the lucky that they are not Governor of Kentucky or Judge of Franklin county. The climate round both of these gentlemen is decidedly warm.

The Ridge is jubilant. Splendid weather, wheat looking well, stock in good condition, oats sowed, potatoes planted, health good, with the exception of a few colds, onions and peas up and our county road open for another twelve years legal campaign.

A grand fox hunt took place here last Monday with all attachments, hounds, horns and yells. The fox is well-known here, is respectable and comes of a good family, and he would have eat the whole party, but they were too tough.

Last winter an excavation was made by the side of the Clarence Hotel, Lexington, and because no braces were used to prop the walls, the side wall of the hotel fell with a crash, dragging down the rear wall of two stories with it. Had it fallen in the day time probably twenty men would have been crushed.

A few dollars worth of timber for braces would have saved several thousand dollars damage.

Those having charge of the work on Main street, Frankfort, have done the right thing and not taken a foolish risk but have taken down the wall of the adjoining building before commencing to dig. This was a very sensible proceeding and shows that the parties understand their business. The damage always comes from a point least suspected; when one part of a house is torn away the other parts are always shaken so that it would be the part of wisdom to have the other part of the house thoroughly examined by a competent architect or civil engineer. The wall next to the State National Bank seems dangerous to any one viewing it from Rodman's corner. True it is fastened with iron anchors but of what account are anchors when the wall to which they were fastened is torn down. A dollar's worth of lumber for prop may in this case save a thousand dollars damage and prevent accident like the Hotel Clarence.

Teachers, trustees and friends of education should read Home and School, the State organ. It favors better school houses, teachers and pay, while its essay on "the school house axe" is a literary gem, but it does not apply to

Crutcher & Starks,

FRANKFORT & LOUISVILLE.

Friars.

Saturday night March 25th will be presented the great comedy drama of "Friends" with a well selected company, which embraces almost all of the original cast. There will please that patrons of the Opera House there can be no question, for it is a play that appeals to all. The name "Friends" is an appropriate one, as it gives a key to the whole story upon which the drama is constructed. It is the first friendship of two young men whose loyalty is tested by that still higher and nobler quality of love. The friends love the same woman, but the hero consents his affection and assists his friend along the proverbial road to success. The play is new, but it is developed so simply and natural that it possesses the freshness of novelty. The heroine is "Marguerite," a famous singer at the opera. Her father is an old man who has the care of his wife, the secret of her girl's parentage, and an inherited fortune is possessed by Hunting, director of the Opera House. He determined to win the singer and her fortune in marriage and to accomplish this he abducts the mother of his friend and keeps him drunk. Marguerite goes there to find her father, and is met by her lover. This leads to the catastrophe. The lover accuses her of dishonesty and conduct, but only learns the true nature of the secret when she is found there dead. The last act is given to reconciliation and the story of re-united lovers is charmingly depicted. Among the list of names given of the company brought together is Miss Selena Fetter, a well-made lady, Theodore Hamilton, one of the best delineators of old men characters, C. A. Handley late with Robson and Crane, Lucius Henderson, a pianist of some note, E. D. Lyons, Bertha Livingston, Louise Wakeling, Katie Baker, and the author, Edwin Milton Royle, and others. The engagement is for one night, Saturday, March 25th.

Several persons who had been troubled with diarrhoea for two or three weeks were cured by a few doses of this medicine.
